

Will of Charles Paske : died 28 March 1820 LL 1820/29
Transcribed by Lesley Silvester Nov 1999

I Charles Paske of the Parish of Cwmcarn in the County of Monmouth, Farmer, being of perfect mind and memory make this my last Will and Testament. My temporal Estate I bequeath and dispose of in the following manner, first I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Paske all that Messuage or Tenement, Garden, six several pieces or parcels of arable Meadow and pasture Land called and known by the several names of ? Travachuchell, ? Travachanish, ? Tramaynich and ? Tramaynisha, the large Mill Meadow and the little Mill Meadow situated lying and being in the Parish of Cwmcarn in the County of Monmouth during the term of her natural life subject nevertheless to keep the said Premises in tenantable repair and to make no willful waste or Damage or cut down any timber but what will be necessary for repairs on the said Premises, and after her decease I give Devise and bequeath the aforesaid Estate to my Nephew William Paske and his heirs Executor and assigns forever subject nevertheless to pay out of the estate the following Legacies, (viz) to my niece Mary Rudge the sum of ten Pounds to my two Nieces Martha and Patience Paske the sum of five pounds each and if one of them should die then her share to go to her surviving sister, to Rachel Paske Widow of my Nephew Charles Paske the sum of Ten pounds, to my wife's nephew William Price the sum of Ten Pounds and to Anne Price my wife's niece the sum of Ten pounds and if Wm Price or Anne Price should die before he or she attains twentyone years of age then his or her share is to go to the survivor- The Residue and remainder of my Estate with my Goods Chattels, Arrears of Rent with all other properties of what kind soever to me appertaining, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Paske whom I constitute and appoint sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament and I do hereby utterly revoke and disannul all former Bequests Wills and Legacies by me heretofore in any wise left and made declaring and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal this 27th Day of Decbr in the year of our Lord 1819.

Signed sealed published and declared by the within named testator (Charles paske) to be his last will and testament in the presence of the testator.

Note: Signed by mark not signature